MARGARET HARRISON

Biografía

Pionera del arte feminista británico y europeo, Margaret Harrison (1940, Wakefield, Reino Unido) cuestiona las nociones de género, identidad, política, clase social, violencia doméstica y explotación del trabajo y la sexualidad de las mujeres. Durante sus más de 40 años trabajando como artista, Harrison ha denunciado problemas culturales y políticos locales e internacionales a través de una variedad de medios incluyendo dibujos, pinturas al óleo, acuarelas e instalaciones de gran tamaño. Utiliza la iconografía del arte pop y las marcas de consumo para reflexionar sobre la identidad femenina, masculina y transgénero, a menudo subvirtiendo los roles de género que la sociedad le ha asignado.

Ha expuesto individualmente en instituciones como el New Museum en Nueva York, Frac Lorraine, el Middlesbrough Institute of Modern in England y Azkuna Centrea en Bilbao. Ha participado en numerosas exposiciones colectivas en centros como Tate Modern y Victoria & Albert Museum en Londres, o el Museo de Arte Contemporáneo en Los Ángeles.
